why...?

You've accepted to go with me at
"Crystal camp," you
could show more
enthusiasm...

Maybe I should go
talk to Kiyomasa-san
about
your feelings for her

She means that Kiyomasa—

Kiyomasa...
—am I?

Oh Gasp! You got me!

Wow...
that's a
reward!

How little time I have left for me...

How few
minutes
are...

What I
want is to be looking at you like this.

As you can see, her body reacted perfectly with the crystal.

To have a chance to reach our mother.

Shiori

But the crystal is now activated and we can easily extract it from her without losing the power of the crystal.

mom...mother...mother...?

The man who is
in front of you is

built with the
maximum energy
of the crystal.

They look alike
but they are built
differently.

androids in this city...
everyone knows that.

Are I looking
like a
character actor?

Don't make
fun of me...
You really
piss me off.

happy that
you're
of course.

as a clown in front
of people...

This what just ruined the

say without diagnostic

Is she remember
anything?

But due to
the accident,
her brain was
really damaged.

And more than
that she's
completely
under our control.

So it will be difficult for her
to remember
anything from the past.

Hey!

she can't react
on her own?
